

Summerside Storm Partner with Basketball PEI and Greco Pizza Stores Across the Island To Name Mascot

The Summerside Storm, the Island's first professional basketball team, will be launching their mascot during their upcoming season and they are inviting anyone who registers with a Minor Basketball Association for the upcoming season to submit a name for the mascot.

The first 200 who submit a name will receive a free 12" pizza, compliments of Greco Pizza stores across Prince Edward Island. Everyone who registers to play minor basketball, who submits a name for the Summerside Storm mascot, will receive a youth (12 and under) ticket to a Storm home game.

The Minor Basketball player who submits the winning entry will receive pizza for a year from Greco Pizza, 2 Summerside Storm season tickets (1 adult/1 youth), a signed Summerside Storm Basketball, a Storm T-shirt, and recognition at a Summerside Storm home game.

Entries can be submitted by going online to info@islandprobasketball.com Contest closes Friday September 30th, 2011.

Summerside Storm season tickets go on sale this coming Monday at the box office at Credit Union Place in Summerside. Training camp opens the first of October with the home opening weekend set for November 3rd and 4th at Credit Union Place.

Contest closes Friday September 30th, 2011.
